Drive Finance Successfully Completes EGP 1.5 Billion Short-Term Bond Issuance

Cairo, 9 November 2026 – Drive Finance, a 100% owned subsidiary of GB Capital, the non-banking financial services arm of GB Corp, announced the successful completion of a short-term bond issuance with a total value of EGP 1.5 billion and a maturity period of 13 months. The issuance reflects the company's strategy to diversify its funding sources and strengthen its financing structure, supporting its growth and expansion plans in the Egyptian market.

The issuance comes as part of Drive Finance's ongoing efforts to leverage capital market instruments and broaden its available funding sources to meet its financing and operational needs. It also strengthens the company's capacity to expand its core business activities, including consumer finance and factoring.

CI Capital acted as the issuance manager and promoter, while Matouk Bassiouny & Hennawy served as the legal advisor. Middle East Rating & Investors Service (MERIS) conducted the credit rating for the issuance, and Baker Tilly served as the issuance auditor.
